Departure Day

Tuesday | May 27th, 2025 | 29th Dhul Qa'dah

❑ Some great advice from a sister who went to hajj a year before (read more)!

- ❑ #1 takeaway from Hajj is that your experience will be unique to you. Every experience you have is customized for you by Allah swt. You will have ease in some areas where others have difficulty, and difficulty in some areas that are a breeze for others. Two people in the same flight, same package, same hotel room will have different experiences.
- ❑ There's a lot of waiting and delay throughout the Hajj journey that is outside your control: waiting to get on your transport and for it to start moving, stuck in traffic, routes blocked, elevators taking forever, long lines for bathrooms and food, bus service is delayed, etc etc etc. This is all part of the experience so try not to get frustrated and just keep dhikr on your tongue at all times.
- ❑ ¹⁰⁰ Strongly advise that you prepare for your journey as if you're traveling alone - know the locations of your hotel, Mina, arafat, muzdalifa, jamaraat, haram. Familiarize yourself with haram entrances and exits and the clocktower area. Know exactly what to do on each day of Hajj. Carry your own cash*. Even if you're traveling with husband/family/group, you never know when you might get separated, or phone stops working, or husband gets sick, or or or.*

Departure from Washington DC, Dulles Intl.

Tuesday, May 27th, 2025 | Departure from IAD (Washington, DC)

❑ Arrive at the Dulles International Airport ~ three (3) hours prior! DON'T MISS YOUR FLIGHT!

- ❖ The check-in desk open 3 hours before our flight time (SV36) which is 6:50 PM ET.
- ❖ You need your passport of course but they may also they ask for the Hajj visa.
- ❖ Please arrive at the airport around 2:30 PM. It's better to be there early than risk losing the flight.
- ❖ We will plan to a quick unofficial Meet & Greet around our departing gate around ~5:30 PM.
- ❖ Asr comes in at 4:58 PM! Please pray Asr (qasr prior to boarding the plane). There is a shared interfaith prayer room in the terminal near Gate A32.
- ❖ Pro Tip: You may not have network after boarding. The phone signal rarely works the moment you board the aircraft. We recommend texting your family, friends, and others prior getting on.
- ❖ Pro Tip: Do pack a pair of change of clothes in your carry-on incase luggage gets delayed.

❑ Salawat in the Plane!

- ❖ Maghrib and Isha would be easier to know when it comes in. When it is dark out, should be able to pray Maghrib and Isha (qasr).
- ❖ Since we are on Saudi Airlines, we have a proper musallah in the back of the plane. Please go ahead and pray the salawat there.
- ❖ Fajr is a bit more complicated. The on-screen display in the seats may give you this time if you check the flight map or you can also ask the flight crew as well.

❑ Try to rest and please enjoy the flight! May Allah bless our travels!

- ❖ After you arrive at Mina, you can rest for an hour, get some food/breakfast.
- ❖ Then we will walk from Muassam Camp to Jamarat which is about 1 hour and 15 mins.
- ❖ After stoning of Jamarat Aqaba, we have a few options (same as the other midnight group):

 - ❖ Go to our Hotel in Aziziyah (20-25 mins walk from Jamarat)
 - ❖ Get a hair cut & sacrifice is done for you by 8 AM or so.
 - ❖ Get out of ihram (minor state) and rest
 - ❖ Go To Makkah for Tawaf and Al Sa'ee (can delay to 11th/12th) (45 mins – 1 hour walk)
 - ❖ After Tawaf and Al Sa'ee, you are out of Ihram completely.
 - ❖ Take a public bus back to Mina or walk back to Aziziyah and then walk to Mina
 - ❖ You have to be back in Mina before Midnight and then stay the night
 - ❖ Same as the above but go directly to Makkah instead of resting and go to Makkah to do Tawaf al Ifada and Al Sa'ee immediately and then back to the hotel.
 - ❖ After hair cut, assuming sacrifice is done, you are out of ihram completely.

"Then let them end their untidiness and fulfill their vows and perform Tawaf around the ancient House."
